

Healthy Indoor Environments for an Ageing Population

Investigating the relationships between building design, the indoor environment and the health and well-being of older people

Department of Health, London, 23 Oct 2008

Draft Programme

10:00-10.30	Registration & Coffee
10:30	Welcome and Chairman's Introduction	Ian Ward University of Sheffield Louise Newport DH
	Morning Session
10:40	Older people, independence and the home: can research make a difference?	Peter Lansley University of Reading
11:15	From the heat of summer to winter cold: how climate change will affect the health of older people	James Goodwin Help the Aged
11:40	Healthy homes, healthier lives – overview of current policies and action to address health / housing links	Sue Adams Care & Repair, England
12:05	Designing homes for an ageing population	Jenny Buterchi PRP Architects
12:30	Lunch and Poster Viewing
13:40	AGM
	Afternoon Session
14:10	The design of supportive environments for people with dementia	Judy Torrington University of Sheffield
14:35	Lighting for an ageing population	Anthony Slater Thomas Pocklington Trust
15:00 – 15:20	Tea and Poster Viewing
15:20	New international standards for the design of indoor environments for an ageing population	Ken Parsons Loughborough University
15:45	Communication between clients and professionals in the design of home adaptations: an explorative study	Pamela Eakin London South Bank University
	Discussion Session
16:10	Members' Short Presentations
16.30	Discussion and Summary
17.00	Close of Meeting	